*Call to Worship

One: Today we recognize God’s creation of women. We thank God for the many ways that women help us each day. For women who prepare meals

Many: We thank you, God.

One: For women to help us when we are sick

Many: We thank you, God.

One: For women who teach us

Many: We thank you, God.

One: For women who drive us where we need to go

Many: We thank you, God.

One: For women who help in construction

Many: We thank you, God.

One: For women who sell us things we need

Many: We thank you, God.

One: For women who work in churches and in businesses

Many: We thank you, God.

One: For women who do many other things that make our life more pleasant

Many: We thank you, God.

One: We ask your blessing on these women who are a part of our congregation today and for those who cannot be with us today. Amen.

“Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore”

Scripture Proclamation read by Dawn Moyer

John 21:15-19

When they finished eating, Jesus asked Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?” Simon replied, “Yes, Lord, you know I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my lambs.” Jesus asked a second time, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Simon replied, “Yes, Lord, you know I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Take care of my sheep.” He asked a third time, “Simon son of John, do you love me?” Peter was sad that Jesus asked him a third time, “Do you love me?” He replied, “Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. I assure you that when you were younger you tied your own belt and walked around wherever you wanted. When you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and another will tie your belt and lead you where you don’t want to go.” He said this to show the kind of death by which Peter would glorify God. After saying this, Jesus said to Peter, “Follow me.”

The Word of God, for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.
