Call to Worship

One: God has loved us from the beginning and called us through the good news of Jesus Christ.

Many: We come to worship the One who gives us eternal comfort and hope.

One: Jesus came not to abolish the Law and the Prophets, but to fulfill them.

Many: We seek to learn from the faith handed down through generations.

One: Standing on the witness of Scripture and the traditions of the Church, we are strengthened for faithful living.

Many: We stand firm in Christ and open our hearts to God's transforming grace.

One: Let us worship God.

Many: Thanks be to God! Amen.

Scripture Proclamation

Matthew 5:17-20

“Don't even begin to think that I have come to do away with the Law and the Prophets. I haven't come to do away with them but to fulfill them. I say to you very seriously that as long as heaven and earth exist, neither the smallest letter nor even the smallest stroke of a pen will be erased from the Law until everything there becomes a reality. Therefore, whoever ignores one of the least of these commands and teaches others to do the same will be called the lowest in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps these commands and teaches people to keep them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. I say to you that unless your righteousness is greater than the righteousness of the legal experts and the Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

2 Thessalonians 2:13-17

But we always must thank God for you, brothers and sisters who are loved by God. This is because he chose you from the beginning to be the first crop of the harvest. This brought salvation, through your dedication to God by the Spirit and through your belief in the truth. God called all of you through our good news so you could possess the honor of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold on to the traditions we taught you, whether we taught you in person or through our letter. Our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and a good hope. May he encourage your hearts and give you strength in every good thing you do or say.

The Word of God, for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.
