Invocation

Opening Hymn “Gather Us In” TFWS 2236

Call to Worship

One: Come, people of God, gathered by grace from many backgrounds.

Many: We come to worship as one family in Jesus Christ.

One: The early church sought the Spirit's wisdom and sent words of encouragement.

Many: We seek that same wisdom, that our conversations may strengthen community.

One: Let us listen with humility and speak with love.

Many: May our words ease burdens, deepen trust, and help our neighbors know they belong.

One: God calls us to discern together and walk in peace.

Many: With open hearts and attentive ears, we welcome the Spirit's leading.

All: Let us worship God, who draws us together in love and sends us to build community!

"They'll Know We Are Christians by Our Love"

Scripture Proclamation read by Kaylyn McBride
Acts 15:22-29

The apostles and the elders, along with the entire church, agreed to send some delegates chosen from among themselves to Antioch, together with Paul and Barnabas. They selected Judas Barsabbas and Silas, who were leaders among the brothers and sisters. They were to carry this letter: The apostles and the elders, to the Gentile brothers and sisters in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. Greetings! We've heard that some of our number have disturbed you with unsettling words we didn't authorize. We reached a united decision to select some delegates and send them to you along with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul. These people have devoted their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, we are sending Judas and Silas. They will confirm what we have written. The Holy Spirit has led us to the decision that no burden should be placed on you other than these essentials: refuse food offered to idols, blood, the meat from strangled animals, and sexual immorality. You will do well to avoid such things. Farewell.

The Word of God, for the people of God.

Thanks be to God.
