Call to Worship
One: May we be rich in good things:
Many: attending to the poor and caring for those in need.
One: May we be generous with our lives:
Many: giving treasure and time to make this world a better place.
One: May we take hold of what is truly life,
Many: the goodness of God flowing in and through us.

Scripture Proclamation read by Kent Verbeck
Proverbs 13:7-11

Some pretend to be rich but have nothing, while others pretend to be poor, but have great riches. Wealth can ransom a person's life, but the poor don't even receive threats. The light of the righteous rejoices, but the lamp of the wicked goes out. The empty-headed cause conflict out of pride; those who take advice are wise. Riches gotten quickly will dwindle, but those who acquire them gradually become wealthy.

1 Tim 6:6-10, 17-19

Actually, godliness is a great source of profit when it is combined with being happy with what you already have. We didn't bring anything into the world and so we can't take anything out of it: we'll be happy with food and clothing. But people who are trying to get rich fall into temptation. They are trapped by many stupid and harmful passions that plunge people into ruin and destruction. The love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. Some have wandered away from the faith and have impaled themselves with a lot of pain because they made money their goal.Tell people who are rich at this time not to become egotistical and not to place their hope on their finances, which are uncertain. Instead, they need to hope in God, who richly provides everything for our enjoyment. Tell them to do good, to be rich in the good things they do, to be generous, and to share with others. When they do these things, they will save a treasure for themselves that is a good foundation for the future. That way they can take hold of what is truly life.

The Word of God, for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.
