One: Let us pray. We ask you, O Lord, for the gifts of your Spirit. Enable us to penetrate the depth of the whole truth, and grant that we may share with other the goods you have put at our disposal.
All: Teach us to overcome divisions. Send us your Spirit to lead to full unity your sons and daughters in full charity, in obedience to your will. Hear us, O Lord, Amen.

Scripture Proclamation read by Shirley Fellers
Proverbs 11:24-28
Those who give generously receive more, but those who are stingy with what is appropriate will grow needy. Generous persons will prosper; those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed. People curse those who hoard grain, but they bless those who sell it. Those who look for good find favor, but those who seek evil—it will come to them. Those who trust in their wealth will wither, but the righteous will thrive like leafy trees.

Matthew 6:1-4
"Be careful that you don't practice your religion in front of people to draw their attention. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven. "Whenever you give to the poor, don't blow your trumpet as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets so that they may get praise from people. I assure you, that's the only reward they'll get. But when you give to the poor, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing so that you may give to the poor in secret. Your Father who sees what you do in secret will reward you.

The Word of God, for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.
