Invocation

Opening Hymn UMH 400
"Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing"

Call to Worship (Psalm 112)
One: Praise the Lord. Blessed are those who fear the Lord, who greatly delight in God's commandments!
Many: Their descendants will be mighty in the Land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.
One: Wealth and riches are in their house, and their righteousness endures for ever.
Many: They rise in the darkness as a light for the upright; they are gracious, merciful and righteous.
One: It is well with those who deal generously and lend, who conduct their affairs with justice.
Many: For the righteous shall never be moved; they will be remembered for ever.
One: They are not afraid of evil tidings; their hearts are firm, trusting in the Lord.
Many: When they see their adversaries, their hearts are steady, they will not be afraid.
One: They have distributed freely, they have given to the poor; their righteousness endures for ever; their horn is exalted in honor.
Many: The wicked see it and are angry; they gnash their teeth and melt away; the desire of the wicked comes to nothing.

Scripture Proclamation read by Lori Conyers
Proverbs 10: 14-17
The wise store up knowledge, but the mouth of a fool brings on ruin. The riches of the wealthy are their strong city; the ruin of the poor is their poverty. The wages of the righteous lead to life; the earnings of the wicked lead to sin. Those who heed instruction are on the way to life, but those who ignore correction lose their way.

Proverbs 6:6-11
Go to the ant, you lazy person; observe its ways and grow wise. The ant has no commander, officer, or ruler. Even so, it gets its food in summer; gathers its provisions at harvest. How long, lazy person, will you lie down? When will you rise from your sleep? A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the arms to lie down—and poverty will come on you like a prowler, destitution like a warrior.

The Word of God, for the people of God.
Thanks be to God.
